Christopher Dilts Press Kit Bio

Christopher James Dilts is a prolific writer, speaker and Angel Contact Coach with a large and warm worldwide following that attends his weekly Angel Circles. The Founder of Ask An Angel.org Christopher leads global seminars, teleclasses, programs, and retreats and is a popular media guest and conference speaker. His specialty is helping people connect truly with their guardian angels.

Tall and distinguished, Christopher is a caring, articulate and engaging speaker deeply rooted in world spiritual practices and traditions. From his own communication with Angels, Christopher has produced thousands of hours of inspiring transcripts from messages on health, prosperity, relationships, and more received from the Angels. Many can be found at www.askanangel.org a resource center for all things connecting to Angels.

As a personal coach, Christopher's private clients include medical practitioners, psychotherapists, business people, career professionals and service providers who call him from Europe, South America, Australia, New Zealand and Canada for angelic life guidance and answers. Coachign sessions and intuitive reading sessions with Christopher keep them people in harmony with their purpose, grounded, practical, inspired, creative, productive and successful.

His latest book, "An Angel for Anna" with Co Author Alison Carol Blackburn has been endorsed by colleagues like Larry Dossey and many of the most respected authors and spiritual development practitioners today. Christopher and Carol have written the book especially for mothers and daughters to read together after a family loss to help them understand the loving presence of their guardian angels.
